Social Protection and Poverty GSDRC

Social assistance is the component of social protection that has the strongest focus on reducing current poverty. It has emerged as the dominant approach in the global South although the limited available data suggests that most social protection expenditure by developing-country governments is allocated to social insurance.

What is poverty Economic and Social Inclusion Corporation

Poverty has many faces, changing from place to place and across time, and has been described in many ways. Most often, poverty is a situation people want to escape. So poverty is a call to action -- for the poor and the wealthy alike -- a call to change the world so that many more may have enough to eat, adequate shelter, access to education and health, protection from violence, and a voice in
