If you are commenting on the final version of a writing assignment, consider responding with remarks that allow students to see strengths and weaknesses for future application. If you include a lot of questions on the final draft, students are likely to get frustrated because they cannot respond to the questions.

responding grading teaching resources teaching with

Responding & grading Commenting on and grading student writing are among the most direct (and therefore valuable) elements of writing instruction. These two activities are also chief among the concerns voiced by faculty members and other instructors, who may feel under-qualified to diagnose and evaluate written strengths and weaknesses.

What is a Response Journal frontiersd mb ca

What is a Response Journal? Choose poetry, stories or books with enough depth to elicit responses. Students should have the opportunity to discuss the reading before ever being asked to write a response. Use of the Say Something strategy (Brownlie, 2005) creates an atmosphere of acceptance and trust.
